6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The institution consistently embraces decentralization and participative management practices, fostering quality enhancement across various levels – Administrative, Management, Governing Council, Principal, IQAC, Various committees, non-teaching Staff, NCC & NSS coordinators, and all other stakeholders involved.

Management: The College Management Committee comprises the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Registrar, Syndicate, Academic Council, Principal, Heads of departments, Teaching and Non-teaching staff. The management aims to provide substantial independence to the teaching, non-teaching staff, and Chairpersons of various departments.

Administration: The college administration supports and monitors the development and implementation of policies, programs, and initiatives aligned with the vision and mission of the college. It oversees Admissions, Accounts and Finance, Record Keeping, Evaluation, etc.

Faculty Members: Faculty members work diligently to implement academic policies and programs. The institution operates a mentoring system, assigning a group of students to a teacher who serves as their mentor, overseeing all curricular and co-curricular activities.

Non-Teaching Staff: the technical staffs of the college provides support and contributes to the implementation of academic activities. The respective non-teaching staff members collaborate to achieve operational and strategic objectives.
