7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

Institution strongly believes on constitutional obligation, values, rights and duties and the responsibility of the citizens. In this direction Karnatak university made mandatory to study Indian constitution. By this academic compulsion, irrespective of the course students have taken, everybody has to study Indian Constitution. Along with this, college conducts several programmes to teach constitutional obligation, values rights, duties and responsibilities. The following are the major programmes conducted to preserve the constitutional obligations.

- On 26th November 2022, the country celebrates as constitutional day. On this day, with the leadership of the Principal of the college observed constitutional day. On this day, staff members were informed about the importance of constitution and how to adopt the constitutional obligation. How we have to perform our duties and how to uphold the values of the constitution. The Principal addressed the students urged them to become responsible citizens to take the country to higher level. Students voluntarily took OATH to uphold the constitutional values.

Volunteers are taking oath on account of constitution day.

- The youths are playing important role in nation building, it is the institution responsibility to show the importance of health and to keep them away from any sort of bad habits. On the eve of anti-tobacco chewing day, college arranged a special awareness speech by Shri. B.R.Patrot Government Health department Dharwad. On this day, students took oath not to practice tobacco chewing in their lives.

College staff members have been continuously putting their effort to bring social welfare activities among students. As our constitution believes on providing helping hand to the needy person, it is important to inculcate in students, social well fare activities. Hence, students were actively involved in blood donation camp held on 14th of June 2022. The blood donation camp was inaugurated by Shri. Ravikumar Maaliger, Syndicate member, Karnatak University Dharwad. Rtn. Dr. Prakash S Ramangoudra, MD (in medicine) was the chief guest . And Dr. Nandeesh, Rotary blood bank witnessed the blood donation camp. Around 160 students donated the blood in this camp.
