Subject: Online Demo on 'Quillbot' research tool.
Ref: Honorable Vice-Chancellor's direction dated 28-09-2023.

Sir/Madam,

Greetings!

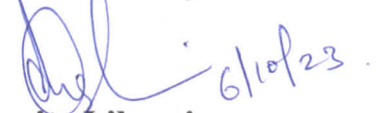

As technology advances, several research tools are emerging to accelerate research productivity and quality. "QuillBot" is one such research tool developed by a Chicago, Illinois-based company. It is an AI-powered productivity-enhancing tool that makes research-based writing compilations easy. In view of this, Prof. S. S. Basavanal Library, Karnatak University, Dharwad as per Honorable Vice-Chancellor's direction intends to assist the research scholars and teaching faculty of Karnatak University by providing access to such a tool. The library is conducting a demonstration through the 'Zoom video conferencing platform' on the use of "QuillBot" software by its publishers. A free trail access to the users for three months will be provided. The resource person from QuillBot will conduct online demonstration on October 10, 2023 (Tuesday) at 12-00 pm.
