Anti Ragging Committee

ANNUAL REPORT-2022-23

Karnataka Science College, Dharwad, constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee to prevent the menace of ragging and maintain healthy interpersonal relations among students on the college campus. Ragging is strictly forbidden within or outside the college campus. For this purpose, the Anti-Ragging Committee has been actively functioning. In the academic year 2022-23, all college students were informed about Anti-ragging through the prospectus. Nearly all students filled out their Anti-ragging forms and submitted them to their class in-charge. During the year, there were no reported incidents of minor ragging on the campus. Under this committee, various lectures were conducted by all staff members at the beginning of the academic year during the bridge courses. The Principal congratulated all members of the committee for the smooth functioning of the Anti-Ragging cell. The Principal also extended thanks to the Anti-Ragging Committee Chairman and his committee members for maintaining discipline on the campus.
