Report on SC/ST Committee Meeting: Academic Year 2020-21

The SC/ST Committee of Karnatak Science College, Dharwad, convened its meeting on 4th August 2021 at the NAAC office, marking the second term of the academic year 2020-21. Chaired by Dr. A. S. Bellad, the Principal, the meeting addressed several crucial matters about the welfare and equitable treatment of SC/ST students within the college community. Alongside Dr. Saraswati P. Masti, the Co-Ordinator, and Prof. L. T. Nayak, the IQAC Co-Ordinator, key discussions ensued regarding the adherence to strict merit and reservation criteria in both college and hostel admissions processes. Dr K. P. Kolkar, Associate Professor, and Dr. S. K. Rajappa, Assistant Professor, contributed to decisions aimed at monitoring the implementation of reservation policies, particularly in admissions to postgraduate and PhD courses. The committee, also comprising Shri. S. C. Hangargi, Assistant Office Superintendent, and Smt. Jayashri Naik, Senior Assistant, resolved to disseminate information about newly introduced schemes, subsidies for self-employment, and skill development training programs tailored for SC/ST students. Anandgouda Patil, the General Secretary, played a pivotal role in facilitating discussions and ensuring effective communication of decisions. The meeting underscored the college's unwavering commitment to fostering inclusivity and support for SC/ST students, as part of its broader mission of academic excellence and social equity.
